7. Following the date on which the bids have been opened the town shall formally notify a party that they are the high bidder and that the town accepted their bid. This notification shall be in writing and the bidder shall have thirty (30) days from the date of this written notification to submit full payment in the form of bank certified check or money order made payable to "Town of Albany". Again, no personal checks or cash will be accepted.

Failure to submit full payment within these thirty (30) days will result in the bidder forfeiting their right to the property and the forfeiture of the $500.00 bid security submitted with the bid.

8. The town will provide the successful bidder(s) with a Quit Claim Deed for the real estate acquired. The town will have the deed recorded at the Carroll County Registry of Deeds.
9. Bid deposits will be returned to all unsuccessful bidders following the execution of a quitclaim deed to the successful bidder. Should the successful bidder default and forfeit the bid, the property will then be offered to the next highest bidder.
10. The properties are being offered as a result of being tax deeded by the Town of Albany and are being sold "As Is" and without any warranties or guaranties regarding the chain of title or condition of the real estate.
11. All property sold will be subject to any easement, restriction or condition contained in the deed to the property. Manufactured house must be moved from Piper Meadows Private Community unless written approval is obtained from the park manager, Steven Parker.
12. Taxes for the current year will be prorated from the date of the deeding and will be billed to the new owner(s).
13. In the case of a tie bid the town will determine the high bidder by the toss of a coin.
14. The Town of Albany reserves the right to accept or reject any and/or all bids or any part thereof, to waive any formality in the process, and to accept the bid considered to be in the best interest of the town. Failure to submit all information called for may be sufficient grounds for disqualification. The Town of Albany reserves the right to cancel this bid request at anytime for any reason.

Viewing:

Prospective bidders who wish to inspect subject properties will be required to sign a liability release in order to gain access to any of the properties for sale.
